Farm to Table

Friend's Ranches

A Truly Family Owned Farm

It all began with George Beers who worked as a cooper on a ship transporting wine from Madeira and England. One day he left his ship in Seattle and made his way down the coast to Ventura County (he had planned to look for gold in Bodie, but liked Ventura so much that he stayed). In 1869 his wife Sarah and daughter, Annie, joined him in California coming from Devonshire England.

The Friend's Family purchased the land from George and the rest is history! Open Tuesdays and Fridays, from 7:00am until 12:00pm - or, if the doors are open, pop your head in anytime.
